CHUKCHANSI GOLD'S VINTAGE STEAKHOUSE EARNS WINE SPECTATOR'S RESTAURANT AWARD OF EXCELLENCE FOR FOURTH YEAR

Vintage Steakhouse Celebrated Amongst World's Best Restaurants for Wine

COARSEGOLD, Calif. - June 25, 2024 - Vintage Steakhouse at Chukchansi Gold has once again earned the prestigious Wine Spectator Restaurant Award of Excellence for 2024, marking the fourth time the restaurant has received this distinguished honor. This accolade ranks Vintage Steakhouse among the world's best destinations for wine enthusiasts.

Chukchansi Gold's Vintage Steakhouse offers an exceptional blend of incredible cuisine, charming ambiance and outstanding service, making it a beloved spot throughout the Valley. The menu, featuring the finest in American steakhouse fare, highlights top-quality steaks, chops and fresh seafood. The restaurant features an extensive selection of nearly 100 wines, predominantly from California's renowned wine country, complemented by a diverse array of international offerings. Guests can savor signature starters like jumbo lump crab cakes and delectable seafood towers, alongside indulgent entrees such as the signature surf & turf, filet mignon, or the 32-ounce porterhouse. Vintage Steakhouse also boasts a high-tech Enomatic Cruvinet system, allowing guests to enjoy high-profile wines by the glass. No meal is complete without one of Vintage Steakhouse's delicious sides, including its famous lobster mac & cheese.

Chukchansi Gold's Director of Food & Beverage, Klaus Feyersinger, said, "Earning Wine Spectator's Restaurant Award of Excellence for the fourth time is a tremendous honor. We strive to provide the best wine experience in the Valley, expertly blending our knowledge of wines with our guests' preferences to create a wine list that is both sophisticated and enjoyable."

Wine Spectator began its program to recognize the world's best wine lists in 1981. The Restaurant Award of Excellence recognizes restaurants with thoughtfully chosen lists, containing both quality and diverse selections.
