BENEFITING OUR COMMUNITIES: ONE MEETING AT A TIME

The Chukchansi Economic Development Authority is an entity of the Picayune Rancheria of the Chukchansi Indians. The CEDA Board consists of seven Board Members that oversee the Economic Development of the Tribe.

VISION: The CEDA Board is dedicated to making a positive difference in our communities while enriching the lives of others in the areas of community, cultural, education, sports, health and human services & humanitarian requests. Our goal is to benefit our family and friends within our communities – one meeting at a time.

DONATION & SPONSORSHIP GUIDELINES: The CEDA Board strives to budget as generously as possible for donation and sponsorship requests and very carefully allocates our resources to impact our communities in a positive manner while striving to assist as many applicants as possible.

DONATION & SPONSORSHIP REQUESTS MUST:

- Be submitted in writing a minimum of 30 days in advance of the event
- Include a detailed description of the request to be funded
- Include a personalized letter of request to be addressed directly to the CEDA Board, describing individual needs, in detail - either monetary, raffle items, or both
- Be within our local communities (within 100 miles of Coarsegold)
(exceptions may apply to Tribal Members of the Picayune Rancheria that live outside of the 100-mile radius described as local communities or any Tribes and State or National Political Organizations)

Should you wish to submit a donation and/or sponsorship request to be considered by the CEDA Board, please submit your request in writing, including a cover letter and the attached donation/sponsorship form. Subject to funding availability. Please mail to the following address:
